Eligibility

This award recognises learning and teaching support programs and services that make an outstanding contribution to the quality of student learning and the quality of the student experience of education at ANU. The programs and services that can be eligible for these awards must have demonstrated their effectiveness through evaluation.

Programs could be around:

- Assessment and feedback
- Educational partnerships and collaborations with other organisations
- The first-year experience
- Flexible learning and teaching
- Innovation in curricula, learning and teaching
- Postgraduate education
- Services supporting student learning

Previously unsuccessful applicants are eligible for application.

Previous award recipients will have their applications considered only if it substantially builds on and/or differs from the basis of their previous award.

Selection Criteria

All applications for the Award for Program that Enhances Learning will be assessed on evidence they provide in relation to each of the following four criteria.

The views of students, collaborators and/or colleagues, as appropriate, will be a key element in the assessment of applications. Include evaluation information from ANUSET or SELT data. ANU Statistical Services can provide this information for you.

1. Distinctiveness, coherence and clarity of purpose

Extent to which the program has clear objectives and systematic approaches to coordination, implementation and evaluation.

2. Influence on student learning and student engagement

Extent to which the program targets identified needs and directly or indirectly enhances student learning, student engagement and/or the overall student experience of higher education.
3. Breadth of impact

Extent to which the program has led to widespread benefits for students, staff, the institution, and/or other institutions, consistent with the purpose of the program.

4. Concern for equity and diversity

Extent to which the program promotes and supports equity and inclusiveness by improving access, participation and outcomes for diverse student groups.

The four selection criteria will be given equal consideration by the Selection Committee. In assessing applications against the criteria, the Selection Committee will take into account:

- demonstrated evidence of the effectiveness of the program in formal and informal evaluation;
- the degree of creativity, imagination or innovation; and
- evidence of the sustained effectiveness of the program

Application information

The application requires:

1. Application cover page.
2. Written statement, including a synopsis, and discussion addressing each of the five selection criteria (8 pages maximum).
4. All applications should be in written format and submitted as a single PDF document.
5. Submissions must be in A4 size, font minimum of 11 points, and submitted as a single PDF document. Margins must be at least 2cm with clear definition between paragraphs. Individual pages that do not meet the requirements, for instance by exceeding the pages limits, will be removed.
