

HOW TO REGISTER FOR THE 2022 KOREA UPDATE – IN-PERSON ATTENDEES

The 2022 Korea Update is a hybrid event that will be held:

- In-person in the Molonglo Theatre of the JG Crawford Building, Lennox Crossing, The Australian National University, Canberra
- Online using the Zoom Events (ZE) platform

To register to attend as either an in-person attendee or an online attendee, you need to reserve a ticket through the Zoom Events platform.

The ZE platform will be the information hub for all attendees during the two-day event. You will be able to read more about the sessions, speakers and other attendees on the event page.

Step 2: Click ‘Register as Guest’

If you are attending in-person, registering as a ‘Guest’ is the easiest method.

(This is also the method to use if you are attending online, but don’t already have an email associated with a zoom account, or don’t want to create one.)

The screenshot shows the Zoom Events page for the '2022 Korea Update' event. At the top left, the Australian National University and Korea Institute logos are displayed. The event title '2022 Korea Update' is prominently featured, along with the date 'Nov 21 - 22' and 'Starts in 14 days'. Below the title, there are tags for 'research', 'culture', 'politics', 'economics', and 'international relations'. A blue 'Register' button is visible, along with a 'Register as Guest' button. A small blue circle with a person icon is in the bottom right corner. The main image on the page shows a busy street market in Korea with many people walking and shopping.
